

Love Is Not Blind

Love is not blind. Love has 20/20 spiritual vision
The eyes of love are open, clear, penetrating, serene Love sees through all colors of skin
Love sees deep into the human heart to discover the goodness there
Love sees through intolerance, prejudice, misunderstanding
Love sees through conflict, struggle and separation to the unity of all life Love sees through the darkness of discouragement and despair to the shining light of hope Love sees the blossom in the rosebud, the greatness in the common man Love sees the criminal, the drug addict, the alcoholic, the forsaken and abandoned transformed by the miracle of the spirit within Love sees men at war not as enemies to kill, but as friends gone astray who must be won back to sanity and goodwill Love sees the silver lining in the stormy clouds Love sees through defeat to victory, through disease to healing, through unhappiness to joy, through fear to courage, through unbelief to faith, through evil to good Love sees heaven to earth
Love is not blind. The most powerful sight in the world is the insight of love Love sees with the eyes of God, for God is love.
